

College of Graduate Studies

Graduate Council

The Graduate Council is the representative body of and is empowered to act for the graduate faculty. The council consists of:

- one member elected by and from the constituent graduate faculty of each college that offers programs leading to graduate degrees (except the J.D. degree)
- four members of the graduate faculty appointed by the president of the university
- two graduate students
- the dean
- and an assistant or an associate dean of the college

Graduate Council Agendas
